Use 3D objects for even more beauty and complexity. For the first time ever, run realistic fluid simulations with new Dynamic Fluids™ physics engines, or mimic particles moving through the air and bouncing off surfaces. This gives you the ability to visually build a particle effect, with a powerful designer making generating effects more creative and intuitive than ever before. Choose from more than 355 Trapcode specific presets designed to give you the start word. Each preset is fully customizable. Features and highlightsDESIGNER (NEW)Creating particle effects is easier than ever before, in the updated Designer. Add adjustable blocks with preset behaviors and styles for pollutants, particles, physics, and artificial particles. Or add complete, customizable particle effects with one click. FLUID DYNAMICS (NEW)Create dynamic, swirly effects with the new Dynamic Fluids physics engine, which allows particles to behave as if they were moving through actual liquids. Choose from 4 adaptive fluid behaviors. GPU-ACCELERATEDGet quick feedback with trapcode particular's new GPU acceleration via OpenGL. about the system and setup, you can Speed boosts up to 4X or higher in previous versions.3D CAMERA and LIGHTSParticularly uses After Effects' 3D camera and lights, so you can fully integrate your particle effects with motion graphics and live VFX recordings. INSTANT FEEDBACK The designer provides instant visual feedback, making the building and viewing the effects an intuitive and creative experience. New special 3, Designer respects AE comp size, bringing composition and camera information. Review your particle appearance with a camera and emitter position controlsMULTIPLE SYSTEMSFor the first time in history, explore endless creative possibilities when combining multiple particle systems in the same 3D space. Create beautiful, complex effects through the interaction of different systems, all within one example of a special one. Emitters in multi-system settings can share parameter settings (such as turbulence, gravity, and more) and can be saved as one preset. TEXT EMITTER (NEW)For the first time in history, use text as a emitter, speeding up the process of creating dramatically from previous versions. No premeditation required. Create writing effects by controlling particle detection along text paths. MASK EMITTERS (NEW)For the first time ever, use masks as a emitter, making it easy to create uniquely shaped emitters or use image parts as particulate emission sources. No premeditation required. Create writing effects by controlling particle detection along the paths of masks. OBJS AS EMITTERSGive your particle systems a new dimension using 3D models and animated OBJ sequences as particle emitters. For added flexibility, you can choose to emit particles from the thyme, edges, face, or volume of the OBJ file. Choose from a Particular library of over 60 OBJs, or simply load your own models using the new OBJ loading board directly into After Effects or inside Designer.SPRITES and POLYGONSUSE any image in your composition as a particle by assigning a 2D sprite or textured polygon. Certain 3 now includes more than 270 photos and animated sprite images, easily uploaded directly inside After Effects or in Designer via the new Sprite Loading Panel.Note: Demo version adds watermarks.
